

Wedding In Christian Church On Thursday Is Picturesque Ceremony

Of interest to their many friends was the wedding of Miss Mary Priscilla Yun Yin Moo, daughter of Mrs. En Fook Moo, and En Oi Farm, which took place Thursday evening at the Christian church. About 300 friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Frank L. Purnell.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Jen Fui Moo, was picturesque in a Chinese bridal costume of white brocaded satin with embroidery also of white. The gown was tight-fitting, long, and lace trimmed the collar and sleeves. She wore a long lace veil arranged with orange blossoms. A white bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

Miss Eleanor Moo, her sister's only attendant, was gowned in pink lace and she carried a bouquet of harmonizing colors. T. F. Farm served his brother as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held and later the couple slipped away for their honeymoon on the other side of the island. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at 3225 Harding Ave.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Moo was hostess at a prenuptial dinner, following a Chinese tradition of giving away a daughter in marriage. Over 180 guests gathered at her home in Kaimuki.

Mrs. Farm returned three weeks ago on the Empress of Russia from Shanghai where she made her home for several years. She studied for six years in Nanking and Peking and one year in Philadelphia, specializing in nursing. Mr. Farm is a realtor and is a prominent member in the Chinese community.
